

XIAO LONG LI: SEXUAL HARASSMENT OF WING YU CHAN

Legal elements, evidence and exhibits · 333 S. Arroyo Drive, Apt. D, San Gabriel, California · Prepared
September 12, 2026

This document sets out, element by element, the law that applies to the sexual harassment allegations against Xiao Long Li (also written Xiaolong Li) and the exhibit that supports each element. Each point has the same parts: (A) the rule; (B) the exhibit and what it shows, with the exhibit's stamped page number; (C) what follows. Exhibits 1 to 21 follow the analysis, each behind a cover sheet, and every page of every exhibit is stamped "Ex. N, p. x." Where a fact rests on the complainant's own account rather than a document, it is marked [CHAN]. Where it rests on a document alone, it is marked [DOC]. Nothing is stated as proved by a document unless the document is attached. Respondent Li's housing conduct and the owner's liability are outside this document.

0. THE FACTS AS THE COMPLAINANT STATES THEM [CHAN]

Ms. Chan rented a room at 333 S. Arroyo Drive, Apt. D from 2022 to 2026 from Xiao Long Li, who told her he was the landlord, collected her rent, and controlled the keys. Mr. Li touched her buttocks without her consent on three occasions, all inside the house.

1. First occasion. Long before September 2025; date and details not recalled. She remembers that it happened and does not guess at more.
2. Second occasion, about August 2025, living room. The front door was open. Mr. Li came in complaining about the open door and about insects, and struck her once on the buttocks with his hand, over her clothing.
3. Third occasion, September 2, 2025, ground-floor restroom. A small room, about 1.5 m by 1.5 m, with a toilet and sink. The door was open because she was only using the mirror and sink. She was facing the mirror and sink with her back to the door. Mr. Li came in behind her and slapped her buttocks with his hand, over her clothing. When she reacted he said, in Chinese, words she renders as "I'm just playing with you, why are you overreacting." She called 911 within minutes.

To the responding officer she described the restroom incident, including that she had been facing the mirror and sink. Asked whether it had happened before, she said three times in total and described the living-room incident as the earlier one. She signed a no-prosecution form at the scene out of fear of the man who controlled her housing. The officer relayed Mr. Li's account to her; her recollection is that it involved an envelope touching her buttocks or waist and a claim that she was angry about undelivered mail. She told the officer that was not true.

Three other residents later told her, in the shared living room, what Mr. Li had said to them: to a resident named Zhou, that he had only patted her waist once; to a resident named Bai, in Ms. Chan's absence while he had a key copied, that he had only lightly patted her shoulder once and that she had made it impossible for him to go on living there; and to a resident known as Jojo (upstairs large room), that nothing had happened. A short-term tenant from Taiwan, about fifty, who stayed about two months, told her that Mr. Li had said Ms. Chan was infatuated with him, that he had refused her, and that she was delusional. The three named residents have said they do not wish to be involved.

1. RESPONDENT LI'S STATED POSITIONS

As relayed to the complainant by the investigating agency on August 19, 2026, Mr. Li's positions are: (1) he "denied all allegations"; (2) "police responded but found no independent witnesses, so they were unable to confirm the statements from either side"; (3) he "was advised to avoid contact with you moving forward to prevent further unsubstantiated accusations and stated he complied." Points 4, 7, 8, 9, 10 and 12 below address each against the exhibits.

POINT 1. LI IS A COVERED PERSON: AN "OWNER" UNDER FEHA AND A "LANDLORD OR PROPERTY MANAGER" UNDER THE UNRUH SEXUAL-HARASSMENT STATUTE [DOC]

(A) Rule. Gov. Code § 12927(e): "'Owner' includes the lessee, sublessee, assignee, managing agent, real estate broker or salesperson, or any person having any legal or equitable right of ownership or possession or the right to rent or lease housing accommodations." Gov. Code § 12955(a) makes it unlawful "[f]or the owner of any housing accommodation to discriminate against or harass any person because of ... sex, gender." Civ. Code § 51.9(a)(1)(D) lists "landlord or property manager" among the relationships covered by the sexual-harassment cause of action. 2 C.C.R. § 12120 defines harassment in housing.

(B) Exhibits. Ex. 15: the 60-Day Notice to Terminate Tenancy dated February 23, 2026, signed on the line "Landlord / Master Tenant Name: Xiaolong Li." Ex. 6, p. 2, section E: his recorded statements 「我是房東」 ("I am the landlord," 9 Oct 2025), 「只有我，我是房東」 ("Only me, I am the landlord," 12 Nov 2025), 「小姐你是房客我是房東」 ("Miss, you are the tenant and I am the landlord," 4 Jan 2026). Ex. 8, p. 2, section B: his June 26, 2025 advertisement of a room in the unit at $700 a month, posted by him in the tenants' group with his telephone number. Ex. 16, p. 1 and Attachment 3t: his Answer of June 22, 2026 in the owner's unlawful detainer action, in which he is the named defendant tenant under the owner's lease. Ex. 20: the complainant's bank search showing monthly Zelle payments of $450.00 to the payee "XIAOLONG" (six entries visible, November 13, 2025 to April 9, 2026; the search reports 21 matching transactions).

(C) Conclusion. Whether or not the owner authorized the subletting, Li was a lessee who sublet, collected rent, set terms and held the keys. He is an "owner" under § 12927(e) and a "landlord or property manager" under § 51.9(a)(1)(D). The more firmly the owner establishes that Li let rooms without authority, the more clearly Li is the person who exercised "the right to rent or lease" over the complainant's room.

POINT 2. THE PHYSICAL CONDUCT IS SEXUAL HARASSMENT IN HOUSING: THE DIRECT EVIDENCE AND THE SAME-NIGHT OFFICIAL RECORD [DOC + CHAN]

(A) Rule. Harassment because of sex in housing is unlawful under Gov. Code § 12955(a), 2 C.C.R. § 12120 and 24 C.F.R. § 100.600. Civ. Code § 51.9(a)(2) reaches "physical conduct of a sexual nature ... that [was] unwelcome and pervasive or severe." 24 C.F.R. § 100.600(a)(2)(ii): "A single incident of harassment ... may constitute a discriminatory housing practice, where the incident is sufficiently severe to create a hostile environment." Penal Code § 243.4(e)(1) defines the conduct the police classified: touching an intimate part of another person against that person's will for the purpose of sexual arousal, gratification or abuse. Evidence Code § 411: "the direct evidence of one witness who is entitled to full credit is sufficient for proof of any fact."

(B) Exhibits.

- Ex. 14, p. 1, para. 3 (declaration of June 22, 2026, under penalty of perjury): "On September 2, 2025, at the above address, Mr. Li touched my buttocks without my consent and against my will. The contact was for no legitimate purpose. I did not invite or welcome it, and it frightened me. I reported this to the San Gabriel Police Department, which created Report No. 2025-02394." This is the direct evidence § 411 refers to.
- Ex. 2 (dispatch log, CFS 25-15418): 22:37:03, new call; 22:38:44, "RP STATES HER LANDLORD/ROOMMATE TOUCHED HER PRIVATE PART. NO HBD/DRUGS/WEAPONS"; 22:42, two units on scene; 23:09:05, Officer Hamel: "PC 243.4 CRIME RPT FILED. all parties contacted, victim desires report with no prosecution, other party advised." The dispatcher's note is a record made by a third party within about eleven minutes of the event.
- Ex. 1, pp. 1–2 (report face sheet): incident code "SEX ADULT: SEXUAL ASSAULT"; offense "TOUCH PERSON INTIMATELY AGAINST WILL FOR SEXUAL AROUSAL/ETC (MISD)," statute 243.4(E)(1), NIBRS 11D; "Completed: Yes"; "Forces Used: Personal Weapons"; suspect male, details redacted; disposition "DB Review" 09/24/25; investigator "None."
- Ex. 1, p. 3 (narrative): the officer records that Li "hit her once on the buttocks," that Li was contacted and gave an account (redacted), that the complainant "stated that was not true and wanted to file a sexual battery report," and that the officer "told S1 that a no prosecution crime report for sexual battery has been filed with V1 alleging that he inappropriately touched her buttocks."
- Ex. 3: the no-prosecution form, signed at the scene, witnessed by Officers Delgadillo (#181) and Hamel (#128).

(C) Conclusion. The elements of § 12955(a), § 12120 and § 51.9(a)(2) are met on the complainant's direct evidence: unwelcome physical conduct of a sexual nature, by the person who controlled her housing, inside her home. Under § 411 that evidence is sufficient if credited. Whether it should be credited is the subject of Points 3, 4, 5, 7 and 12. The official record made the same night does not contradict it; it classifies the conduct as a completed sexual battery and records no finding against her.

POINT 3. CONSISTENCY: THE SAME ALLEGATION, TO INDEPENDENT RECORD-KEEPERS, FROM THE FIRST ELEVEN MINUTES ONWARD [DOC]

(A) Rule. Evidence Code § 780(g) (a prior statement consistent with the witness's account bears on credibility); § 1236 (prior consistent statements admissible to rebut a charge of recent fabrication). The credibility of an uncorroborated account is assessed by its consistency over time and whether it was made before any motive to fabricate arose.

(B) Exhibits, in date order.

Date	Record-keeper	What the record says	Exhibit
2 Sep 2025, 22:38	SGPD dispatcher	"landlord/roommate touched her private part"	Ex. 2

2 Sep 2025, 22:42–23:09	Officers Hamel, Delgadillo	Sexual battery report, PC 243.4(e)(1); "three times in total" told to the officer	Ex. 1; Ex. 4, p. 1
23 Sep 2025	Li himself, on video	"Who touched your butt? You have paranoia": the accusation is already in dispute thirteen days later	Ex. 6, p. 1
29 Oct 2025	Vi Nhan, ACSW, Pacific Clinics	Clinical note: symptoms "triggered by 3 sexual assault cases by her elderly landlord" (referenced; see index)	—
12 Nov 2025	Li himself, on video	"A week after I raised your rent, you falsely accuse me of touching your butt": his own dating of the accusation to early September 2025	Ex. 6, p. 1; Ex. 7, p. 2
21 Feb 2026	Civil Rights Department	Housing complaint filed	Ex. 21
24 Mar 2026	Emily Ng, M.D., for CalVCB	Crime date 9/2/2025; "Sexual Assault / Sexual Battery"; PTSD acute (F43.11)	Ex. 10
5 May 2026	SGPD, Lt. Lopez (DA copied)	Written request to reopen; the report's location error identified; "three times in total" explained; body-worn camera review requested	Ex. 4, pp. 1–2
5 Jun 2026	SGPD, Det. Lara	Supplemental interview; video evidence provided	Ex. 4
22 Jun 2026	Sworn declaration	Para. 3, quoted at Point 2	Ex. 14
26 Jun 2026	Emily Ng, M.D., Superior Court	Treating since Jan 20, 2026; working diagnosis PTSD; under penalty of perjury	Ex. 11
21 Jul 2026	Civil Rights Department	Form I-918 Supplement B executed: qualifying crime "Sexual Assault"; PC § 243.4; 09/02/2025; narrative "smacking her on the buttocks without her consent"; status "On-going"	Ex. 12

(C) Conclusion. The core allegation is identical in every entry: her landlord touched her buttocks; it happened on September 2, 2025; it had happened before. Two independent numbers match: "three times in total" to the officer on September 2, 2025 (Ex. 4, p. 1, describing what she told him) and "3 sexual assault cases" recorded by a clinician on October 29, 2025 who had no access to the police report. The first entries precede any eviction notice (February 23, 2026, Ex. 15), any agency filing (February 21, 2026, Ex. 21), any restraining order (May 1, 2026, Ex. 13) and any dispute over rent (Point 11). There was no motive to fabricate on September 2, 2025, and the account has not changed since.

POINT 4. THE TELEPHONE'S OWN FILE DATA: SIX DATES ON WHICH HE CAME BACK TO THE DWELLING, UNANNOUNCED, AND THE AUTHENTICATION OF THE RECORDINGS [DOC]

(A) Rule. Evidence Code § 250 defines a "writing" to include "every other means of recording upon any tangible thing, any form of communication or representation, including ... sounds, or symbols, or combinations thereof," and photographs and video are within it. Section 1401 requires authentication; § 1400 defines it as "the introduction of evidence sufficient to sustain a finding that it is the writing that the proponent of the evidence claims it is." Section 1413 permits authentication by a person who saw the writing made. Section 1421 permits authentication by content. Section 1553 provides that "[a] printed representation of images stored on a video or digital medium is presumed to be an accurate representation of the images it purports to represent," a presumption affecting the burden of producing evidence. The Department's investigation is not bound by these provisions, but they are the tests the recordings would have to meet later, and the material below meets them.

(B) Exhibit. Ex. 6, pp. 3–9: seven pages, one per recording, each reproducing two screen captures taken by the complainant from the Photos application of her own telephone — the recording in playback, and the same recording with the file-information panel open. The panel is written by the device, not typed by the complainant. What it shows:

Ex. 6	Date and time the device recorded	File	Device and format	Length	Location panel

(C) Conclusion.

1. Six dates on which he came back. Respondent Li told the Department he was advised to avoid contact with the complainant and "stated he complied." The device data records him at the dwelling, in her presence, close enough to be filmed at arm's length, on September 15, September 23, November 1 and November 12, 2025 and January 4 and February 11, 2026. Nothing in the record contains a notice of entry, a request by the complainant, a repair, an emergency, or any reason at all for any of these six returns, and Respondent Li has offered none. The full index at Ex. 6, p. 1 lists fourteen recordings across seven dates; these seven pages document six of those dates from the device itself.
2. Two systems, nine dates, one pattern. Add the three entries into the complainant's bedroom recorded by her Blink camera on April 24, May 5 and May 10, 2026 (Ex. 9; Point 10), which happened while she was out of the dwelling. Between the advisement of September 2, 2025 and his departure on May 10, 2026, Respondent Li is documented at the property on at least nine separate dates by two independent recording systems — her telephone when she was at home, her bedroom camera when she was not.
3. The recordings are authenticated. The date, clock time, file number, camera, codec, frame rate, file size, duration and location in each panel were written by the telephone. They are not the complainant's description of her own evidence; they are the device's. Under § 1400 and § 1553 this is more than enough to sustain a finding that each file is what she says it is, and she can authenticate each one directly under § 1413 because she made it.
4. The file data cross-checks the index. The durations shown by the device — 01:26, 07:53, 02:01, 03:56 and 7:00 — match the corresponding entries in the index at Ex. 6, p. 1 exactly, and 02:33 and 00:38 match within one second. The index was compiled from the files, not invented.
5. The location. Three panels carry the Photos application's own label "Home," which the application takes from the device's stored home address; the other three place the recording in San Gabriel on a map showing the Mission District and North Garfield Avenue. The recordings were made where the complainant lived.
6. Identity. The same man appears on every one of these dates across five months, at close range and in good light, with his face visible. The complainant identifies him as Respondent Li. The Department can compare the frames with any photograph or identification it obtains, and can put the frames to Respondent Li directly.
7. This is the answer to "denied all allegations." Whatever he denies having said, he cannot deny having been there. A man who had been told on September 2, 2025 that a sexual battery report naming him had been filed, and who says he then kept away, is on that woman's telephone six more times and inside her bedroom doorway three more times.

8. What these pages do not do. They carry no audio and no subtitles, and they do not prove a single word. The quoted words in Points 5 and 6 rest on the native files, which the complainant will produce with metadata intact, together with a certified translation.

POINT 5. LI'S OWN STATEMENTS ABOUT THE EVENT ARE ADMISSIONS, AND THEY CONTRADICT EACH OTHER [DOC + CHAN]

(A) Rule. Evidence Code § 1220: a party's own statement is admissible against him. Evidence Code § 780(h): a witness's credibility is judged by statements inconsistent with his testimony. A denial that takes six different forms is not one denial.

(B) Exhibits and account.

1. To the complainant, in the restroom [CHAN]: "I'm just playing with you, why are you overreacting." Not a denial of contact; a characterization of it.
2. To the police, the same night [DOC as to existence; CHAN as to content]: Ex. 1, p. 3 records that Li gave an account and that the complainant, told of it, "stated that was not true." SGPD has redacted the account. The complainant's recollection of the officer's relay is that Li said he touched her buttocks or waist with an envelope. The unredacted narrative (Point 14) will settle the content.
3. To Ms. Zhou [CHAN]: he patted her waist once.
4. To Ms. Bai [CHAN]: he lightly patted her shoulder once.
5. To the Taiwanese tenant [CHAN]: she is infatuated with him and delusional.
6. To Jojo [CHAN] and to the complainant on video [DOC]: nothing happened. Ex. 6, p. 1, section B: 23 Sep 2025, 「誰摸你屁股了？你是妄想症吧你神經病。」 ("Who touched your butt? You have paranoia, you crazy person"); 12 Nov 2025, 「誰摸你屁股了！」; 4 Jan 2026, 「誰摸你屁股？！就你看你那樣子！什麼樣子，誰…誰娶你啊。」 ("Who touched your butt?! Just look at how you look! ... who would marry you?"); 「我瞎眼…誰瞎眼去摸你！」 ("I'd have to be blind... who would be blind enough to touch you!"). Ex. 7, pp. 4–6 (working transcription of the 4 Jan 2026 recordings) gives the surrounding exchange.

Two further recorded facts [DOC]: on 12 Nov 2025 Li said 「我給你漲了房租一星期以後，你就誣告我說我摸你屁股」 ("A week after I raised your rent, you falsely accuse me of touching your butt"), dating the accusation himself to early September 2025 and confirming he knew of it then (Ex. 6, p. 1; Ex. 7, p. 2); and nine minutes later, asked directly whether the rent increase was his reason, he said nothing and walked upstairs (Ex. 6, p. 1, clip 7). Across about 71 minutes of recording on five dates he never asks what she is referring to, when, or where (Ex. 6, p. 1, section A index).

(C) Conclusion. Three of the six accounts admit physical contact and differ only about the part of the body. Two attack the complainant instead of describing the event. One denies everything. A person who did not touch the complainant has one account. The variation here is the variation of a story adjusted to its audience, and each version is admissible against him under § 1220 once the witness who heard it is interviewed (Point 14). The recorded versions are admissible now.

POINT 6. THE RECORDED VERBAL CONDUCT IS INDEPENDENTLY UNLAWFUL:
"CONDUCT OF A HOSTILE NATURE BASED ON GENDER," PERVASIVE OVER FIVE MONTHS [DOC]

(A) Rule. Civ. Code § 51.9(a)(2): the defendant "engaged in ... verbal, visual, or physical conduct of a sexual nature or of a hostile nature based on gender, that were unwelcome and pervasive or severe." Gov. Code § 12955(a) (harassment because of sex or gender). 2 C.C.R. § 12120 (hostile-environment harassment; totality of circumstances). 24 C.F.R. § 100.600(a)(2).

(B) Exhibits. Ex. 6, p. 2, section C, recorded in Li's voice:

Date	Verbatim	English
15 Sep 2025	你就是個妓女！(twice) / 你個賤貨	"You are a prostitute!" / "You cheap slut"
23 Sep 2025	你比潑婦都不如，你妓女…一個賤貨 / 你還不如妓女呢…你是一個人類的垃圾	"You are worse than a shrew, you prostitute... a cheap slut" / "worse than a prostitute... human garbage"
9 Oct 2025	你犯賤	"You are acting cheap"
1 Nov 2025	Li spits toward the complainant; a third party is present (Ex. 6, p. 1, clip 5).
4 Jan 2026	你臉皮那麼厚！這麼不要臉！ / 怎麼就跟個老娘們一樣 / 誰娶你啊 / 誰瞎眼去摸你	"So shameless!" / "acting like an old hag" / "who would marry you" / "who would be blind enough to touch you"
11 Feb 2026	我以為家裡進了一隻瘋狗 / [問：你是在侮辱女性嗎？] 查字典去。	"I thought a mad dog got into the house" / asked "Are you insulting women?": "Go check the dictionary."

Ex. 7, pp. 4–8: working transcriptions of the 4 Jan 2026 and 11 Feb 2026 recordings. Ex. 6, p. 1, section A: the index of all fourteen recordings with date, time and length. The transcripts are uncertified and contain speaker-attribution errors in at least three clips (stated on the face of Ex. 6, p. 1); the native video files are the evidence and are available with metadata.

(C) Conclusion. Nine recorded gendered slurs on six dates over five months, plus spitting, directed at a resident in her home by the man who controlled her tenancy, satisfy "pervasive" under § 51.9(a)(2) and create a hostile housing environment under § 12120. This ground stands whether or not the September 2 contact is found. Timing: the first recording, September 15, 2025, is thirteen days after the police report and already contains "prostitute" twice. His response to being reported for sexual battery was to begin calling the person who reported him a prostitute.

POINT 7. "NO INDEPENDENT WITNESSES" IS NOT A FINDING AGAINST THE COMPLAINANT, AND THE POLICE RECORD CONTAINS NO SUCH FINDING [DOC]

(A) Rule. Evidence Code § 411 (one credited witness suffices). 24 C.F.R. § 100.600(a)(2)(ii) (single incident). The administrative standard is reasonable cause on a preponderance, not proof beyond a reasonable doubt. The Civil Rights Department's Housing Harassment Prevention Guide (Sept. 2022, guidance) recognizes that harassment in housing usually occurs without a witness and calls for a credibility assessment.

(B) Exhibit. Ex. 1 in full. The word "witness" does not appear. No conclusion "unable to confirm either side" appears. The report is a completed crime report with disposition "DB Review" and no investigator assigned. Ex. 5, p. 4 (PRA 26-307 production message): supplemental reports were withheld, so no later finding has been produced either.

Proposition in Li's statement	Supported by Ex. 1?
No independent eyewitness was located	Yes; none is claimed
Police were "unable to confirm the statements from either side"	Not recorded
No arrest was made	Not recorded either way
The District Attorney declined to charge	No ; no referral or decision appears
SGPD found the allegation unfounded, or found fabrication	No ; the offense is recorded as completed

(C) Conclusion. The characterization of the police response is Li's, not the record's. The absence of a criminal filing, a year after a no-prosecution report that was never assigned to an investigator, is not evidence on the administrative question. The record's only relevance is that it fixes the date, the immediacy and the classification of the report, all of which support the complainant.

POINT 8. NO SGPD WRITTEN SUMMARY IN THIS MATTER CAN BE RELIED ON; THE 911 AUDIO AND BODY-WORN CAMERA RECORDINGS ARE THE ONLY RELIABLE RECORD [DOC]

(A) Rule. A summary that its author states is an interpretation cannot be preferred to the recording it summarizes. Penal Code § 832.18 sets minimum retention periods for body-worn camera data and requires logs of access and deletion to be kept permanently. Gov. Code § 34090.6 permits a city department to destroy recordings of telephone and radio communications after 100 days unless they are evidence in a claim or pending litigation.

(B) Exhibits.

1. SGPD says so itself. Ex. 1, p. 3, last paragraph: "The statements in this investigation are paraphrased by the investigating Officer. Paraphrased statements do not contain the entire statements and are the Officer's interpretation of the statements. This investigation was recorded with my department issued body worn camera."
2. The one narrative that matters was challenged in writing and SGPD undertook to check it against the recording; no result has ever been produced. Ex. 4, p. 1 (May 5, 2026 email): "the incident described in the report does not match what I actually called the police about on September 2, 2025 ... The actual September 2, 2025 incident that I called police about happened in the ground floor restroom." Ex. 4, pp. 1–2 (Lt. Lopez, same day): "I will have Officer Hamel's supervisor review the Body Worn Camera to see if the information you gave matches what was documented in the report." Ex. 4, pp. 3–7: the June 5, 2026 supplemental interview and the unanswered June 24, 2026 follow-up.

3. A second SGPD written summary in this record is wrong on its face. Ex. 19, p. 3 (San Gabriel County Water District, July 6, 2026): "the water was shut off on 5/18/26 due to the accountholder submitting a stop service form." Ex. 18, p. 2 (SGPD command log, CFS 26-08976, May 19, 2026): "RP STATES HER ELECTRICITY WAS SHUT OFF BY THE LANDLORD"; disposition "ADVISED ON CIVIL MATER. RP AND PROPERTY MANAGER CONTACTED, NO MALICIOUS INTENT & REFEREED TO EDISON." A documented water shutoff became an electricity inquiry, and "no malicious intent" was entered as a conclusion after a telephone contact with the person complained about. The 911 audio and body-worn camera video for that call exist and were released to the complainant (index, item R-1); they can be compared to the log.
4. A third police response has no written record at all [CHAN]: May 10, 2026, about 6 p.m., after Li opened her bedroom door (Ex. 9, pp. 3–4; Point 10). Officers telephoned Li on two numbers; he ended the call when the officer identified herself; the officer refused to give a case number, calling the matter civil.
5. What SGPD releases depends on what the record is about. Ex. 5, p. 2 (PRA 26-143, closed March 10, 2026): the September 2 records "are exempt from disclosure under the Investigatory Records Exemption." Ex. 5, p. 4 (PRA 26-307, June 25, 2026): reports and CAD logs released; "All other requests under #1 and #2 are exempt"; body-worn camera, 911 audio and supplemental reports withheld. Ex. 5, pp. 6–7 (PRA 26-566, closed July 23, 2026): records "not available for production at this time"; the requester must "appear in person." For the May 19, 2026 civil call, by contrast, SGPD released both the 911 audio and the body-worn camera video (index, R-1).

(C) Conclusion. Every SGPD written summary in this record that can be tested against another source has failed the test or has been withdrawn from testing. The written narrative of September 2, 2025 is, by its author's own description, an interpretation. Neither party's description of "what the police found" should be given weight. The 911 audio and the body-worn camera recordings of September 2, 2025 should be obtained by subpoena (Point 14), and because Gov. Code § 34090.6 permits destruction of telephone recordings after 100 days, SGPD should be required to state in writing whether the September 2, 2025 recordings still exist.

POINT 9. "ADVISED TO AVOID CONTACT AND COMPLIED" IS CONTRADICTED BY SGPD'S LOG, BY HIS OWN RECORDED VOICE, BY HIS OWN MESSAGES AND BY HIS OWN SWORN FILING [DOC]

(A) Rule. A respondent's statement to the investigating agency is weighed against the documentary record. A false statement to the agency bears on the credibility of every other statement he makes (Evid. Code § 780(h), (i)).

(B) Exhibits. The only advisement in the record: Ex. 2, 23:09:05 and 23:17:07, "other party advised"; Ex. 1, p. 3, the officer "told S1 that a no prosecution crime report for sexual battery has been filed." Contact after September 2, 2025:

Period	Contact	Exhibit
--------	---------	---------

15 Sep 2025 – 11 Feb 2026	Fourteen recorded in-person interactions inside the house, about 71 minutes; Li initiates clips 4, 11 and 14; spits toward her (clip 5); pushes her hand away (clip 4); removes three concealed cameras from the shared areas (clip 13)	Ex. 6, p. 1, section A
12 Nov 2025	Told on camera that she will seek a restraining order; his whole reply: 「你…你該交房租了。」 ("You... it's time for you to pay rent")	Ex. 6; Ex. 7, p. 2
9 Nov 2025 – 25 Apr 2026	Twenty-two WeChat messages from Li to the complainant, addressing her by name, the last on April 25, 2026	Ex. 8, p. 1
22–23 Feb 2026	Lockout of the wooden door; "bring your gate key and wooden-door key"; "you lost it, pay $10"	Ex. 8, pp. 3–4; Ex. 7, p. 1
24 Apr 2026	Bedroom door opened, recorded by the complainant's Blink camera (16:21:22)	Ex. 9, p. 1
5 and 10 May 2026	Bedroom door opened and a man's head and upper body inside the doorway, recorded (14:33:24; 14:07:10 and 14:08:41); files given to Det. Lara June 5, 2026	Ex. 9, pp. 2–4; Ex. 14, para. 4
10 May 2026	Li leaves the building: "Defendant vacated the premises on May 10, 2026" (his sworn Answer); "Xiaolong Li admitted he had vacated the premises on 5/10/2026" (owner's counsel)	Ex. 16, p. 3, items 4a, 4c; Ex. 17

(C) Conclusion. If the advisement he refers to is SGPD's of September 2, 2025, he had eight months of continuous contact after it, ending on the day he moved out. If it was some later advisement by someone else, he has not said who or when, and the analysis is the same for any date before May 10, 2026. Either way the statement "complied" is false on his own documents. Contact ended because he left, not because he complied.

POINT 10. ENTRIES INTO THE COMPLAINANT'S BEDROOM, APRIL 24 TO MAY 10, 2026: RECORDED, UNANNOUNCED, AFTER THE RESTRAINING ORDER, AT A PROPERTY HE TOLD THE COURT HE HAD LEFT [DOC + CHAN]

(A) Rule. Civ. Code § 1954: a landlord may enter a tenant's dwelling only in the cases the section lists (emergency; agreed or necessary repairs, inspections or showings; abandonment; court order), only after reasonable written notice (24 hours is presumed reasonable) and during normal business hours except in emergency or by the tenant's consent, and "[t]he landlord may not abuse the right of access or use it to harass the tenant" (§ 1954(c)). 2 C.C.R. § 12120: hostile-environment harassment includes unwelcome conduct that interferes with the use or enjoyment of a dwelling. Gov. Code § 12955.7: it is unlawful "to coerce, intimidate, threaten, or interfere with any person in the exercise or enjoyment of ... any right granted or protected by" the fair housing provisions, including on account of having filed a complaint. Civ. Code § 1708.7 defines civil stalking as a pattern of conduct intended to follow, alarm, place under surveillance or harass, causing the person reasonable fear for her safety. Code Civ. Proc. § 527.6 is the basis of the restraining order in Ex. 13.

(B) Exhibits. Ex. 9, pp. 1–4: four frames from the complainant's Blink camera inside her bedroom, each file name carrying the recording's start time: April 24, 2026, 16:21:22 (door open; p. 1); May 5, 2026, 14:33:24 (door open, a person partly visible at its edge; p. 2); May 10, 2026, 14:07:10 (a man's head and upper body inside the doorway, looking into the room; p. 3); May 10, 2026, 14:08:41 (the same man standing in the doorway with his hand on the door; p. 4). The complainant identifies the man as Li, and she was out of the dwelling on each of the three occasions, which is why the entries were captured by the camera rather than witnessed by her [CHAN]. The native files were given to Det. Lara on June 5, 2026 (Ex. 4). Ex. 14, para. 4, sworn June 22, 2026: "On at least three occasions — on or about May 5, 2026 and May 10, 2026, and at least one other time — Mr. Li opened the door to my bedroom and put his head and upper body inside to watch me, without my permission." Ex. 13: the temporary restraining order was granted on May 1, 2026, before the May 5 and May 10 entries. Ex. 16, p. 3, items 4a and 4c: "Defendant vacated the premises on May 10, 2026." Ex. 17: "Xiaolong Li admitted he had vacated the premises on 5/10/2026." Ex. 8, p. 1: Li's message of April 24, 2026, the day of the first recording: "The $240 is a refund for rent after April 23 due to termination of your tenancy ... Please vacate the property as required." Ex. 4, p. 1: the complainant's written request to SGPD of May 5, 2026, sent at 11:59 a.m.; the second entry was recorded at 2:33 p.m. the same day. The police response of May 10, 2026 at about 6 p.m. is at Point 8, item 4 [CHAN].

(C) Conclusion.

1. He entered her room while she was out, three times, with no reason in the record. A man who "denied all allegations" and told the agency he "complied" with advice to avoid the complainant is on camera in her bedroom doorway on three dates, with his head and upper body inside the room on the last two. Nothing in the record supplies a reason for his presence: no notice under § 1954, no repair, no emergency, no request by her, no explanation by him. Under § 1954 the entries are unlawful on their own; under § 1954(c) an entry used to harass is an abuse of access even where a right of access existed.
2. On his own account he had no business there. He told the owner's counsel and the court that he vacated on May 10, 2026 (Ex. 16, Ex. 17); the 14:07 and 14:08 recordings are from that afternoon and show him not leaving the building but entering her room. The complainant's May 4, 2026 email said he no longer resided at the property; presence in her bedroom doorway on April 24, May 5 and May 10 is not residence. It is intrusion into the one room in the house that was hers alone.
3. Each entry follows a step she took against him. April 24: the day after his own notice deadline, and the day he messaged her to vacate (Ex. 8, p. 1). May 5: four days after the restraining order (Ex. 13), and two and a half hours after her written request to SGPD to reopen the sexual battery case (Ex. 4, p. 1). May 10: the day he left. Her housing complaint had been on file since February 21, 2026 (Ex. 21). Entries of this kind after protected activity are interference under Gov. Code § 12955.7 and part of the hostile environment under § 12120; they are also the surveillance-and-alarm pattern that § 1708.7 describes.
4. Identification is testable. The frames can be compared with Li's likeness, and Li can be asked the question in Point 14: on what date did he last enter the complainant's room, and why. Whether the restraining order had been served on him by May 5 is a matter for the court file; the entries are unlawful under § 1954 and harassment under § 12120 whether or not it had been.

POINT 11. LI'S ONLY MOTIVE THEORY FAILS ON THE DOCUMENTS [DOC]

(A) Rule. Evidence Code § 780(f): the existence or nonexistence of a motive is a credibility factor. A fabricated accusation is a tool; the question is whether it was used as one.

(B) Exhibits. His theory, in his own words on 12 Nov 2025: the accusation came "a week after I raised your rent" (Ex. 6, p. 1). Against it: Ex. 20, the complainant's bank search: $450.00 to "XIAOLONG" on November 13 and December 9, 2025 and January 9, February 12, March 10 and April 9, 2026, the increased rent paid month after month without dispute; Ex. 3, the no-prosecution form signed the same night; Ex. 21, her first agency filing, February 21, 2026, five and a half months later; Ex. 13, the first restraining order, May 1, 2026, eight months later.

(C) Conclusion. A person who invents an assault to fight a $50 rent increase does not then pay the increase every month through April 2026, decline prosecution on the night, and use the accusation in no forum for five and a half months. On Li's own chronology the rent increase came first, so the complainant made the accusation while dependent on him for housing and having just accepted an increase from him: the position of a person with every reason not to make a false accusation.

POINT 12. THE DENIAL: WHAT IT IS WORTH AGAINST HIS OWN SWORN STATEMENTS AND RECORDED WORDS [DOC]

(A) Rule. Evidence Code § 780(h) (prior inconsistent statements) and (i) (the existence or nonexistence of any fact testified to). A blanket denial that covers conduct recorded in the respondent's own voice can be tested by playing the recording.

(B) Exhibits.

1. Sworn "untrue" against his own signature. Ex. 16, p. 4 (Attachment 3t, p. 1): in his Answer verified under penalty of perjury on June 22, 2026, Li checked "The facts stated in the notice regarding the breach and/or nuisance are untrue." The breach alleged was subletting without the owner's consent. Ex. 15: four months earlier he signed as "Landlord / Master Tenant." Ex. 8, p. 2: his own advertisement of a room in the unit. Ex. 20: rent collected. In the same Answer (Ex. 16, p. 6; Attachment 3t, p. 3) he checked that the owner "accepted rent with actual and/or constructive knowledge of the alleged breach" and "has waived the alleged breach." One cannot waive a breach that did not happen; he swore to both.
2. Sworn "vacated May 10" and, in the same document, "reduce my rent and reinstate my tenancy." Ex. 16, p. 3, items 4a and 4c ("Defendant vacated the premises on May 10, 2026"); item 5d (order the owner to make repairs and "reduce the monthly rent to a reasonable rental value until the conditions are corrected") and item 5e ("Reinstatement of the tenancy"). A person who has moved out has no rent to reduce and no tenancy to reinstate.
3. A factual claim contradicted by himself two minutes later, on camera. Ex. 7, pp. 2–3 (12 Nov 2025): 「沒有任何人扣留你的任何郵件！」 ("Nobody has withheld any of your mail!"); 「我每隔一兩天都會打開一次信箱」 ("I open the mailbox every one or two days"); then, asked where the past week's mail is, 「我今天還沒有時間出去拿信…週一週二我工作很忙，沒有時間」 ("I haven't had time to get the mail... Monday and Tuesday I was very busy, no time"). Ex. 7, pp. 7–8

(11 Feb 2026): 「不是你們郵箱，是我的郵箱！」 ("It is not your mailbox, it is my mailbox!"); 「我不需要給你證明」 ("I don't need to prove it to you").

4. "You lost it, pay $10." Ex. 8, pp. 3–4 and Ex. 7, p. 1: February 22, 2026, 02:21, the complainant: 「為什麼今晚木門上鎖了 我進不去」 ("Why is the wooden door locked tonight, I can't get in"); February 23, the complainant: 「你從來沒有給我木門鑰匙」 ("You never gave me a wooden-door key"); Li: 「早就給你了是你自己弄丟了」 ("Gave it to you long ago, you lost it yourself"), 「你鑰匙丟了付10元我幫你去補一把新的」 ("Your key is lost, pay $10 and I'll get you a new one"). He produced nothing showing a key was ever issued, and did not answer her request in the same exchange for the mailbox key. The pattern is the one in Point 5: a complaint is converted into a fault of the person complaining.

5. Six accounts of one event. Point 5.

6. "Denied all allegations." The allegations include the statements in Point 6, recorded in his own voice on fixed dates. If his denial extends to them, it is refuted by playing Ex. 6's source files. If it does not, the denial is selective and he should be required to state in writing which recorded statements he admits are his.

(C) Conclusion. When Li's word is placed beside a document, including documents he signed under oath, the document has repeatedly said the opposite. His denial is entitled to the weight that record gives it.

POINT 13. THE ADVERSE FACTS, AND THE EXHIBIT THAT ANSWERS EACH [DOC + CHAN]

Adverse fact	Answer, with exhibit
She signed a no-prosecution form at the scene (Ex. 3)	Fear of the man who controlled her housing; a Cantonese speaker with no interpreter or counsel; the officer's manner indicated a minor matter [CHAN]. She reversed it: Ex. 4 (May 5, 2026 request to reopen for DA review; June 5 interview; June 24 follow-up). The Department's guidance treats hesitant reporting by a victim dependent on the harasser as a circumstance to weigh, not a bar.
The police narrative places the September 2 contact in the living room (Ex. 1, p. 3)	Her account is the restroom, with the living-room incident being the earlier August occasion she described when asked whether it had happened before. She raised this herself with SGPD on May 5, 2026, inviting them to check their own recording (Ex. 4, p. 1); SGPD agreed to (Ex. 4, pp. 1–2) and has produced no result. The narrative is, on its face, the officer's interpretation (Point 8). A person constructing a story would not volunteer two rooms.
"3 sexual assault cases" in the clinical note	Consistent with what she told the officer on September 2, 2025 (Ex. 4, p. 1) and with Section 0: three occasions.
Psychiatric hospitalization November 8–12, 2025; discharge diagnosis unspecified psychosis; records do not mention September 2	Disclosed here. The hospitalization occurred during the recorded period of conflict; the PTSD diagnosis was made after discharge (Ex. 10, Ex. 11) and has been maintained by two clinicians. Ex. 14, para. 6 described the hospitalization as a result of Li's conduct; the precise statement is the one here. The hospital records prove nothing about what Li did and are not offered for that.

On the 4 Jan 2026 recording she said a laboratory had matched fingerprints on an envelope to Li	Inaccurate; nothing was submitted for analysis and no report exists. Withdrawn; not relied on. Stated here so it is heard from her first.
The February 11, 2026 recording is not on the complainant's telephone	Disclosed. The file was deleted from the telephone in error. The complainant had uploaded a copy the same day to her own video account as a private backup (Ex. 6, p. 9); the account's upload record can be produced and will show the upload date. The recording was never published. The other thirteen files remain on the device (Ex. 6, pp. 3–8).
On the recordings she is angry, follows him, and uses coarse language	Admitted. A resident who confronts her harasser on camera is not disqualified from protection; the recordings should be viewed whole (Ex. 6, index).
On 1 Nov 2025 a bystander said "No, he didn't say that" when she said Li had threatened to hit her	Disclosed. The same clip records the spitting, which no one contradicts (Ex. 6, p. 1, clip 5).
Her May 4, 2026 email says Li "no longer resides at the property since last year"	A statement about where he slept, not about contact: he collected rent (Ex. 20), kept the mailbox key (Ex. 7, pp. 7–8), removed his own cameras from the shared areas on 4 Jan 2026 (Ex. 6, clip 13), and appears in person in fourteen recordings and three bedroom-door recordings (Points 4, 9 and 10).
Ex. 14, para. 4 says the TRO "remains in effect"	True when written. Ex. 13 extends the TRO to the July 17, 2026 hearing; the order after that hearing is not in the exhibit set. Nothing here depends on the TRO's current status.

POINT 14. EVIDENCE NOT YET IN THE RECORD, AND HOW IT IS OBTAINED

Preservation, immediately (Pen. Code § 832.18; Gov. Code § 34090.6). To the SGPD Records Custodian, 625 S. Del Mar Avenue, San Gabriel, CA 91776: (1) September 2, 2025, CFS 25-15418 / Report 2025-02394: body-worn camera video and audio of Officers Hamel and Delgadillo from dispatch to clearance, the 911 audio, radio traffic, the CAD record, and the access and deletion logs for each; (2) May 10, 2026, about 18:00, 333 S. Arroyo Dr. Apt. D: every call for service, body-worn camera video including the telephone calls placed to Li, and the access and deletion logs; (3) May 19, 2026, CFS 26-08976: originals of the released 911 audio and body-worn camera video. SGPD should be required to state in writing whether the September 2, 2025 recordings still exist and, if not, when and on whose authority they were destroyed.

Subpoena to SGPD (Gov. Code § 12963.1). The unredacted narrative of Report 2025-02394, including the statement attributed to S1 that is redacted in Ex. 1, p. 3; the recordings above; the result of the body-worn camera review Lt. Lopez committed to on May 5, 2026 (Ex. 4, pp. 1–2); Det. Lara's supplemental report from the June 5, 2026 interview; any communication with the District Attorney's Office; any field interview card, admonishment or stay-away advisement given to Li on any date; all calls for service to the address from September 1, 2025 to date.

Subpoena and written questions to Li. Every account he has given of physical contact on September 2, 2025 (to SGPD, to any resident, to the agency); whether he denies saying "I'm just playing with you"; whether he denies touching the complainant's body by any means, including with an envelope; who advised him to avoid contact, when, and in what form; when he last entered the complainant's room and why; whether he admits the voice on the Ex. 6 recordings is his and that he said the quoted words; the identities, contact details and rent records of every resident of Unit D from January 2025 to May 2026, including Ms. Zhou, Ms. Bai, Jojo, the woman upstairs he said on camera he "made leave" (Ex. 6, p. 2, section D) and the short-term tenant from Taiwan; all footage from the cameras he installed in the shared areas for August and September 2025, and an account of the three cameras he removed on January 4, 2026 (Ex. 6, clip 13).

Witnesses. Officers Nicholas Hamel and Maria Delgadillo; Lt. Rene Lopez and Det. Anthony Lara; Ms. Zhou, Ms. Bai, Jojo and the Taiwanese tenant once identified; Vi Nhan, ACSW, and Emily Ng, M.D., Pacific Clinics Asian Pacific Family Center; the complainant, with a Cantonese interpreter.

CONCLUSION

On the exhibits, Li is a covered landlord (Point 1). The complainant's direct evidence establishes unwelcome physical conduct of a sexual nature inside her home (Point 2), reported within eleven minutes and repeated without variation to every independent record-keeper since (Point 3). The recordings are authenticated by her telephone's own file data, which also places him at the dwelling on six dates after the advisement (Point 4). Li's own responses admit contact in three versions, deny it in a fourth, and degrade her in the rest (Point 5); his recorded gendered slurs over five months are unlawful on their own (Point 6). "No witnesses" is not a finding (Point 7); the police written summaries are, by SGPD's own words, interpretations, and the recordings that would settle the facts are being withheld (Point 8). His claim of no-contact compliance is false on his own documents (Point 9), and he is on camera in her bedroom doorway three times after the advisement, twice after the restraining order, on the last day at a property he swore he had left (Point 10); his motive theory is contradicted by her payments and her restraint (Point 11); and his denial comes from a man whose sworn statements contradict his own signature (Point 12). The reasonable-cause standard is met on the physical conduct and, independently, on the verbal conduct.

Case #2025-02394

Typed By Nicholas Hamel

Involved Parties:

V1 Chan Wing Yu

S1 [REDACTED]

Source: Radio call from Dispatcher Aranda # 724 regarding a possible sexual battery investigation at 333 South Arroyo Drive, Apt D.

On 09/02/2025 at approximately 2237 hours, I arrived on scene and met with V1 Chan Wing Yu (V1). I asked V1 what happened today and she stated that at approximately 2226 hours, she was inside her residence (in the living room) and seated at the dining room table. V1 stated she had the front door of the residence open due to it being hot inside. V1 then stated that her landlord, S1 [REDACTED] came into the living room and was upset that she had left the door open. V1 said that S1 stated that she was letting the bugs inside and yelled at her to close the door. V1 stated that S1 then hit her once on the buttocks (NFD). I asked V1 if S1 had a closed fist or an open hand when he hit her buttocks and she stated she did not know. I also asked V1 where on her buttocks she was hit and she stated she didn't know exactly where. V1 stated she then called the police.

I then met with V1 Li and told her that S1 stated [REDACTED] V1 stated that was not true and wanted to file a sexual battery report, but did not want prosecution. I then had V1 sign The San Gabriel Police Departments No Prosecution form and later uploaded it to Central Square. I then went back inside the residence and told S1 that a no prosecution crime report for sexual battery has been filed with V1 alleging that he inappropriately touched her buttocks.

The statements in this investigation are paraphrased by the investigating Officer. Paraphrased statements do not contain the entire statements and are the Officer's interpretation of the statements. This investigation was recorded with my department issued body worn camera.

Dear Lieutenant Lopez,

I went to San Gabriel Police Department yesterday to file a follow-up report on Case #2025-02394, the front desk officer informed me you were not in and instructed me to email you directly to request the case be reopened for DA review.

I am formally requesting that Case #2025-02394 (September 2, 2025 sexual battery, PC 243.4(E)(1)) be reopened and submitted to the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office for review.

I also need to bring two important issues to your attention.

First, I request the body camera footage and audio be reviewed, I have now just carefully reviewed the full police report and identified that the incident described in the report does not match what I actually called the police about on September 2, 2025. The report describes an incident in the living room with the front door open and the landlord complaining about the door, I want to clarify this incident did happen, but it occurred approximately a month before September 2, 2025. The actual September 2, 2025 incident that I called police about happened in the ground floor restroom (approximately 1.5m x 1.5m with a toilet and sink). The bathroom door was open because I was only using the mirror and sink. The restroom is a CCTV blind spot, which the living room is not.

I do not remember Officer Hamel's exact words, but he asked me something like whether this had happened before. That's why I described three times in total and the earlier living room incident the second time as context for the pattern. It appears the report may have inadvertently described that earlier incident rather than the September 2 incident I was actually reporting that night.

I respectfully request that the body camera footage and audio be reviewed so the report can be corrected to accurately reflect the September 2, 2025 incident location.

Second, I want to update the suspect status in the report. In the report I do identifies Xiao Long Li as my landlord, last friday night my roommates and I received a 3 day Notice to Quit from the actual property owner, Michael. From the notice we finally realized that Xiao Long Li is not the landlord which he claimed he is in all housing ads, messages, videos and documents. He is just a tenant who has been collecting rent and his wife signing documents claiming he is the landlord without subleasing authorization by the owner. However sublease is prohibited in San Gabriel. While this is not directly part of the sexual battery case, I want the record to reflect his actual status accurately.

Please let me know what additional steps are required to formally reopen the case and to correct the report based on the body camera footage. I am happy to come into the station at your convenience.

Thank you,

Wing Yu

Ms. Chan,

In order for you to add information to an existing case, you would have to speak with the Detective that is assigned to your case. If you are requesting changes to your original report on 09/02/25, then you have to speak with Detective Lara. He can be reached at AL126@sangabriel.gov. Once you get in contact with him, he can set up an appointment for an interview.

In regard to the original report filed, I will have Officer Hamel's supervisor review the Body Worn Camera to see if the information you gave matches what was documented in the report.

Dear Lieutenant Lopez,

I am so sorry to bother you again, and I hope you had a wonderful Memorial Day weekend.

I am reaching out because I'm a little unsure of what to do next. I followed your instructions and emailed Detective Lara on May5, and then followed up again on May19 to schedule the interview. However, I haven't received any response yet.

I completely understand that Detective Lara must be incredibly busy with many important cases, and I really don't want to be a nuisance! I am just a bit worried that my emails might be getting lost in his inbox.

Since I haven't been successful in reaching him after a couple of tries, would it be possible for you to check in with him internally on my behalf? Or is there perhaps a better way I should be trying to get on his calendar? I just want to make sure I am doing everything correctly on my end to get this report updated.

Thank you so much for your patience and for always being so helpful. I really appreciate your time.

Best regards,

Wing Yu

Dear Detective Lara,

I hope you're doing well. I wanted to follow up on case #2025-02394.

Yesterday June 23 I went to Police Station to drop off a copy of my TRO (Case No. 26PDRO00576) as the court directed me to leave a copy with the station in the morning. While I was there I also asked about the status of #2025-02394, and the front desk confirmed the supplemental is ready, but directed me to follow up with you directly for any further updates.

So I wanted to check in with you:

1. Has the supplemental report for case #2025-02394 been submitted to the District Attorney's office? If so, which office and filing deputy? If not, when do you expect to submit it?
2. As the victim of a sexual assault, I am requesting a free copy of the incident report under Family Code § 6228. Please let me know how I can receive it (my mailing address is 8919 Garvey Ave C2 A135, Rosemead, CA 91770).
3. I respectfully note the one-year filing deadline for a misdemeanor under Penal Code § 802 approximately September 2, 2026 and ask that the case be submitted well before then. I would also ask that the filing deputy evaluate all available charges, including § 243.4(a) if the elements are met.

I remain fully cooperative and available at any time. Thank you for your help.

Best regards,
Wing Yu Chan

Declaration of Wing Yu Chan

Executed June 22, 2026

Under penalty of perjury. Paragraph 3: the September 2, 2025 contact and same-day report.
Paragraph 4: the bedroom-door entries and Blink recordings.

DECLARATION OF WING YU CHAN

In Support of Request for U Nonimmigrant Status Certification (Form I-918, Supplement B)

I, Wing Yu Chan, declare as follows:

1. I am the petitioner named in the attached Form I-918, Supplement B. I was born on November 24, 1998. I make this declaration in support of my request that the California Civil Rights Department certify my helpfulness as a victim of qualifying criminal activity. The facts stated here are true and correct and within my personal knowledge, and if called as a witness I could and would competently testify to them. I am more comfortable in Cantonese and have had this declaration explained to me in Cantonese.
2. Since 2022, I have rented a room at 333 S. Arroyo Drive, Apt. D, San Gabriel, CA 91776. I paid my rent to Xiao Long Li (also known as Xiaodong Li / Xiaolong Li). Mr. Li consistently held himself out to me as the landlord — in housing advertisements, in text messages, and in recordings — and I believed he was my landlord. Only in May 2026 did I learn that he is not the owner, but a master tenant who had been subletting to me in violation of his own lease.
3. On September 2, 2025, at the above address, Mr. Li touched my buttocks without my consent and against my will. The contact was for no legitimate purpose. I did not invite or welcome it, and it frightened me. I reported this to the San Gabriel Police Department, which created Report No. 2025-02394 (responding officer Nicholas Hamel). When I first reported, I was afraid of Mr. Li because he was my landlord and controlled where I lived, and I initially told the officer I did not want him prosecuted. As his conduct continued and escalated, I cooperated further with the investigation.
4. Mr. Li also stalked me. On at least three occasions — on or about May 5, 2026 and May 10, 2026, and at least one other time — Mr. Li opened the door to my bedroom and put his head and upper body inside to watch me, without my permission. I keep an Amazon Blink camera in my room, and it recorded these intrusions; the recordings are time-stamped. On June 5, 2026, I provided this video evidence to Detective Lara of the San Gabriel Police Department by AirDrop, as a supplement to Report No. 2025-02394. On May 1, 2026, the Los Angeles County Superior Court issued a civil harassment temporary restraining order against Mr. Li for my protection (Case No. 26PDRO00576), which remains in effect.
5. After I reported him, Mr. Li retaliated against me. He repeatedly called me a prostitute and a “gold digger,” which I have on video, and told the other women in the building that they were losing their housing because of me. These statements are false. I never asked Mr. Li for money and have only ever paid him rent. As a result, the other tenants have blamed me and cut off contact, leaving me isolated.
6. As a result of Mr. Li’s conduct, I was diagnosed with post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD), ICD-10 code F43.11, and I was psychiatrically hospitalized in November 2025. I continue to receive treatment at Pacific Clinics and continue to suffer fear, anxiety, and sleeplessness.
7. I have cooperated fully with law enforcement and with the California Civil Rights Department. I reported the crimes to the San Gabriel Police Department; I completed a victim interview with Detective Lara on June 5, 2026; I provided my video evidence to the detective; I obtained a civil harassment restraining order against Mr. Li; and I filed a housing complaint with the Civil Rights Department. I have never refused any reasonable request for assistance, and I will continue to assist.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed on June 22, 2026, at Rosemead, California.

DEFECTIVE NOTICE

The notice that is the basis of this action is defective because:

- ☐ It did not clearly demand possession and/or it is not in the alternative.
- ☐ It did not declare a forfeiture (cancellation) of the lease or rental agreement.
- ☐ It did not adequately describe the property.
- ☒ It was not served on the defendant.
- ☒ It was a different notice than the one plaintiff attached to the complaint. (CCP §1166(b)(A).)
- ☒ It was not served as or on the date that plaintiff alleges in the complaint. (CCP §1166(a)(5).)
- ☒ Notice was not served properly per CCP §1162
- ☒ It was posted on the door and not mailed, or ☐ mailed and not posted.
- ☐ It was given to a minor at the subject premises.
- ☐ It was given to an adult other than the defendant and not also mailed to the defendant.
- ☐ It demands more rent than defendant(s) owed because:
- ☐ there are/were uninhabitable conditions which reduces the rent owed.
- ☐ Plaintiff failed to give credit for ☐ rent paid and/or ☐ repairs paid for by defendant.
- ☐ Plaintiff illegally increased the rent.
- ☐ It demanded late fees or other non-rental charges in violation of Civil Code §1671(d).
- ☐ It demanded rent for a period beyond one year. CCP §1161.
- ☐ Defendant is due an offset because Plaintiff reduced housing services originally included in rental agreement.
- ☐ Defendant paid invalid late fees during the tenancy.
- ☐ Defendant made payments towards plaintiff's bulk internet services and was not offered the opportunity to opt out. (See Civil Code §1942.8(a).)
- ☐ Plaintiff failed to provide a refrigerator and/or stove as required by law.
- ☐ Defendant tendered the rent in a manner directed by the plaintiff. Therefore, plaintiff cannot demand additional rent from the defendant. CC §1476, CCP §1161.5
- ☐ It does not identify name of person to pay, address, telephone number (or, if rent is requested in person, available days of the week or hours) where the rent can be paid per CCP §1161.
- ☐ It was served before the rent was late.
- ☐ The notice is defective because it fails to state the start and/or end date of the period during which the tenant could pay. Eshagian v. Cepeda, 108 Cal.App.5th 1 (2025).
- ☐ It did not give the defendant 3 days to pay rent because:
- ☐ The notice cannot expire on a weekend or holiday. (CCP §12a)
- ☐ The notice cannot expire on the same day it was served. (CCP §1161(2).)
- ☐ Plaintiff only accepts rent on certain days, but counted days it was unavailable to accept rent.
- ☐ It does not give the defendant 30 days to move. (CC §1946.1)
- ☐ It does not give the defendant 60 days to move. (CC §1946.1.)
- ☐ It does not give the defendant 90 days to move. (CC §1954.535; Protecting Tenants at Foreclosure Act extended to Dec. 31, 2014 by Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act)
- ☒ It was based on a breach of covenant but did not specify what the defendant must do to cure the breach and/or it did not give the defendant 3 days to cure the breach. (CCP §1161(3).)
- ☒ It was based on a breach of covenant/nuisance but failed to describe the act with specificity. (CCP §1161.)
- ☒ It was based on breach of covenant or nuisance, but it was trivial or non-material.
- ☒ The facts stated in the notice regarding the breach and/or nuisance are untrue.
- ☐ The notice is a 30/60/90/120 day no-fault notice of termination, but it does not contain the required statement about reclaiming abandoned personal property. (Civil Code §1946.1(h).)

- ☐ Defendant was unable to contact plaintiff within the notice period due to plaintiff's action and/or failure to act and was, therefore, prevented from paying the rent demanded. (CC §1511.)
- ☐ It violated the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act because a non-owner is collecting the rent for the owner without providing a proper debt validation notice. (15 U.S.C. § 1962.)

DEFECTIVE COMPLAINT

- ☐ The complaint was not verified or improperly verified. (CCP §1166.)
- ☒ The complaint was filed before the expiration of the notice because:
- ☐ The notice was served on _____ and, therefore, did not expire until _____
- ☒ The notice was not served at all or ☒ it was not properly served.
- ☐ The notice was not attached to the complaint (CCP § 1166(c)(1)(A).)
- ☐ The unlawful detainer is based upon a cause of action other than nonpayment of rent and Plaintiff failed to attach the rental agreement to the complaint. (CCP § 1166(c)(1)(B).)
- ☐ The Complaint fails to state a cause of action for an unlawful detainer because plaintiff did not complete the necessary information in paragraph(s) _____ . (CCP §1166.)
- ☐ The complaint was filed in the incorrect courthouse by zip code; therefore, it was improperly venued and no further proceeding may occur. (CCP § 396a; LASC 4th Amended General Order re: Limited Jurisdiction Unlawful Detainer Cases; LASC Local Rule 2.3(a)(2).)

BREACH OF WARRANTY OF HABITABILITY

- ☒ The amount of rent demanded in the notice and/or the daily rental value demanded in the complaint, is excessive because Plaintiff has failed to provide habitable premises as required by Civil Code §1941.1 and/or Health and Safety Code §17920.3, of which the plaintiff had actual and/or constructive notice and which are listed by way of example and not limitation:
- | | |
|--|--|
| ☒ Damp/leaking ceiling or walls | ☐ Missing/broken smoke detectors |
| ☐ Falling plaster/peeling paint | ☒ Infestation of roaches/rodents/insect/vermin |
| ☐ Lack of/Inadequate heat | ☐ Common areas unclean |
| ☐ Lack of/Inadequate hot water | ☐ Inadequate trash receptacles/collection |
| ☐ Defective/Inadequate gas services | ☐ Unsafe stairways/railings |
| ☐ Missing/broken windows or doors | ☐ Inadequate security locks |
| ☐ Missing/torn window screens | ☐ Defective electrical wiring |
| ☐ Hole(s) in walls/floor/carpet | ☐ Lead Hazards |
| ☐ Defective/leaking Plumbing | ☒ Mold |
| ☐ Broken/defective Refrigerator | ☐ Broken/defective Stove |
| ☒ Other: Defective dryer, -defective carbonmonoxidealarms | |
- ☐ The conditions above have existed and have not been repaired for 60 days after notice from a government agency inspector, creating a presumption that plaintiff breached the warranty of habitability.
- ☐ Plaintiff may not increase, demand or collect rent when uninhabitable conditions exist(ed) and have not been repaired/abated within 35 days after written notice from a public officer or employee to repair or abate them. (CC §1942.4.)
- ☐ The dwelling/unit contains serious health, safety, fire or building code violations, for which a citation was issued by a governmental agency and has not been abated for 6 months or longer. (CC § 1954.52.)
- ☐ Plaintiff has failed to obtain a valid certificate of occupancy for the premises making the unit unfit for residential habitation. The premises is "an illegal unit" and thus the lease is an unenforceable contract.

REPAIR AND DEDUCT

- ☐ Defendant does not owe the rent demanded because defendant paid for and deducted from the rent the cost of repairs which plaintiff knew were needed and failed to provide within a reasonable time. (CC §1942(a).)
- ☐ Plaintiff and defendant agreed ☐ verbally or ☐ in writing that defendant could repair the conditions in the unit and deduct the cost of repairs from the rent. (CC §1942.1.)
- ☐ Defendant made a payment to a utility and, therefore, was allowed to deduct such payment from the rent. (PUC §§10009-10009.1, §§ 12822-12822.1, §§16481-16481.1; CC §1942.2.)
- ☐ Other:

ESTOPPEL

- ☒ Plaintiff was aware of the facts regarding defendant's purported breach and acted so as to lull defendant into believing that the alleged breach was acceptable to plaintiff. Defendant reasonably relied on plaintiff's acts and failure to act to the detriment of defendant and defendant was ignorant of plaintiff's true intentions.
- ☐ Plaintiff made an oral agreement with defendant that the rent demanded in the notice could be paid at a later date, upon which defendant detrimentally relied.
- ☐ Plaintiff and defendant entered into a written agreement that the rent demanded in the notice could be paid at a later date, upon which defendant detrimentally relied.
- ☒ Plaintiff has waived the alleged breach and is estopped from prosecuting this action because defendant has paid rent and detrimentally relied on the waiver.
- ☐ Other:

WAIVER

- ☒ Plaintiff, with full knowledge of defendant's alleged breach and the facts surrounding said breach, intentionally waived and relinquished the right to declare a breach or forfeiture of the tenancy.
- ☐ Within the notice period, defendant timely tendered the full amount of the rent demanded to the plaintiff, and said tender was accepted by the plaintiff.
- ☐ Rent was accepted by the plaintiff after the notice expired; lessor has accordingly waived the breach and the notice and created a new tenancy. (CCP §1161.5.)
- ☐ Plaintiff has accepted late payment of rent in the past and so waived the alleged breach.
- ☐ Plaintiff has accepted partial payment of rent in the past and so waived the alleged breach.
- ☒ Plaintiff accepted rent with actual and/or constructive knowledge of the alleged breach. As a result, plaintiff has waived the alleged breach. (CCP §1161.5.)
- ☐ Within the notice period, defendant timely tendered the full amount of rent demanded by plaintiff, but said tender was refused. Said tender extinguished tenant's obligation to pay rent. (CC § 1485.)

DISCRIMINATION FOR FAILURE TO PROVIDE REASONABLE ACCOMMODATION

- ☐ Defendant is a qualified person with a disability. Defendant asserts that plaintiff was aware of defendant's disability. Accommodation is necessary to afford defendant equal opportunity to use and enjoy their home. Defendant requested but plaintiff failed to provide a reasonable accommodation (Fair Housing Act ("FHAA") 42 U.S.C. §3604, California Fair Employment and Housing Act ("FEHA") California Government Code §§ 12900, et seq., Rehabilitation Act § 504 of 1973, 42 U.S.C. § 1214, et seq. ("Americans with Disabilities Act."))

RETALIATION

- ☒ Plaintiff may not recover possession to retaliate against defendant within 180 days of:
- ☒ Defendant complaining to a governmental agency/agencies concerning tenantability. (CC 1942.5.)
- ☐ Defendant complaining to the plaintiff or plaintiff's agent concerning tenantability. (CC §1942.5.)
- ☐ For otherwise asserting defendant's rights. (CC § 1942.5.)

DISCRIMINATION

- ☐ Plaintiff is discriminating against defendant in violation of the Constitution and laws of the United States, and/or State and local laws, on the basis of:
- | | | | |
|---|--|--|---|
| ☐ Race | ☐ Gender | ☐ National Origin | ☐ Age |
| ☐ Sexual Orientation | ☐ Religion | ☐ Family Status | ☐ Source of Income |
| ☐ Disability | ☐ Presence of Children in Household | ☐ Other: | _____ |

OWNERSHIP AND STANDING

- ☐ Defendant was not notified of the change in ownership, which prevented payment of rent. (CC §1962.)
- ☐ Defendant paid rent to former owner before receiving notice of the change of ownership. (CC §1111.)
- ☐ A landlord/tenant relationship does not exist between plaintiff and defendant.
- ☐ Plaintiff/Plaintiff's agent/plaintiff's property management company does not possess the real estate license required to rent property, solicit tenants, and collect rent. (BPC § 1013(b); B&P § 10130.)
- ☐ Plaintiff's claim of title and right to possession is based on a void or voidable instrument.
- ☐ Title to the subject property is in dispute.
- ☐ Plaintiff is not the owner of the subject premises and, therefore, lacks standing to evict defendant.
- ☐ Plaintiff is not the owner of the subject premises and does not correctly state its authority to sue on behalf of the actual owner. (CCP §367.)
- ☐ Plaintiff is an individual but wrongfully brought this action using a business name.
- ☐ Plaintiff is a ☐ Corporation, ☐ LP, ☐ LLC or ☐ Trustee of a trust, but did not bring the suit under its legal name.
- ☐ Plaintiff is a Corporation, LP, LLC or a Trustee of a trust and must be represented by an attorney. (BPC § 1625.)

- ☐ It is not registered with the California Secretary of State. (R&TC §23301.)
- ☐ It is suspended as a business entity with the California Secretary of State. (Id.)

- ☐ Defendant is entitled to a 30-day notice and possible relocation benefits.
- ☐ Defendant has paid rent and /or provided Plaintiff valuable nonmonetary consideration or other services in lieu of rent to establish a tenancy beyond a tenancy at will. (CCP § 789.)

- ☐ This action is barred by a prior judgment or because another action is pending upon the same cause of action. (CCP § 597.) Defendant requests that the court take judicial notice of the following cases:
- ☐ The parties negotiated the written lease agreement in a language other than English; however, the written contract is in English. (Civil Code § 1632, et seq.)
- ☐ Plaintiff is displacing defendant using State or Federal funds and has not complied with the State Relocation Act, and/or Federal Uniform Relocation Act and/or the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974. (Gov't Code §§ 7260-7277, 25 CCR §§ 6000, et seq., 24 CFR Part 42; 42 U.S.C. 420-4655; 49 CFR Part 24 49 CFR §104(d), 42 U.S.C. §§5301, et seq.; 49 CFR §§24.2, et seq.)

- ☐ Defendant is on active military duty and subject to the protections of the Service Members Civil Relief Act (SCRA) 4 to U.S.C. §§521 et seq.

TENANT PROTECTION ACT OF 2019 (Civ. Code §§ 1946.2, 1947.12, 1947.13)

The premises are subject to the Tenant Protection Act of 2019 ("TPA" as 1) a tenant has occupied the premises for 12 months or more and 2) the unit was built more than 15 years ago and 3) not otherwise exempted under the law.

- ☐ The required notice did not include the required statement verbatim. (CC §1946.2(f)(3).)

Hi Ms. Chan

My name is Enhancao, and I am an attorney for the landlord in the above case. For saving time and cost, the landlord agrees to settle this case with you. Please see the attached settlement agreement and sign on the last page of the agreement; all terms are the same as your proposal except the water service.

Please note that the Plaintiff is the owner of this property, and his tenant is Xiaolong Li. The Plaintiff only has obligations to provide accommodation to his tenant, Xiaolong Li, not others. And in their written lease agreement, Xiaolong Li agrees to pay any utility fees. Since Xiaolong Li admitted he had vacated the premises on 5/10/2026, the Plaintiff has no duty to restore the utility service that Xiaolong Li has intentionally stopped.

Please sign and return the attached agreement by the end of tomorrow to me, or we will request the court to adjudicate this matter. Thank you.

Hi Cao

Signed counterpart of your form is attached within the 24 hour deadline you set

I signed your form with three initialed modifications, two of them are boxes printed on your own form (Item 4 "only upon default"; Item 9 dismissal without prejudice / CCP § 664.6), and one is a clarification that the deposit waiver runs against Plaintiff only, with all claims against Xiaolong Li reserved, because my deposit was paid to Xiaolong Li, not to your client.

All other terms are ACCEPTED as written.

My July 15 stipulation provided that no judgment would be entered absent default. The form you sent enters judgment immediately. The three initialed modifications simply align your form with that structure, using the options already printed on it. Everything else I have accepted as you sent it.

My signature is effective only upon execution by all parties; if not fully executed by July 20, 2026, it is withdrawn and of no effect.

Hi Jennifer

Thank you for your response and for citing the relevant section of SB 998.

I can provide a government issued photo ID. However, I want to address the requirement for "a valid lease agreement between you and the landlord," because my situation falls squarely within the protective purpose of SB 998, and I want the District's position clearly documented in writing.

The relevant facts are as follows:

1. I have resided continuously at 333 S Arroyo Dr, Apt D, San Gabriel, CA 91776 since 2022.
2. I do not have a written lease with the legal property owner, Michael Guo. I have never had a direct rental agreement with him.
3. The individual who held himself out as my landlord and collected my rent, Xiaolong Li, is the subject of a restraining order I obtained against him (Los Angeles Superior Court Case No. 26PDRO00576). I cannot safely or lawfully obtain documents from him.
4. My continuous occupancy of the unit is independently documented by the San Gabriel Police Department, which responded to my unit and recorded my occupancy under case #26-08976. Notably, water service to my unit was previously discontinued based on a representation that the unit was vacant, a representation the police response and report directly contradict.

In light of the above, I am requesting that the District accept alternative proof of tenancy and occupancy in place of a lease agreement. Requiring a lease with the legal owner, with whom I have no direct agreement, obtainable only through a person against whom I hold a restraining order, would as a practical matter deny me the very protection SB 998 is intended to provide.

Please confirm the following in writing:

- a. Whether the District will accept the alternative proof of occupancy described above; and
- b. If not, whether a written lease agreement with the legal owner is an absolute, non-waivable requirement for establishing service in my name under SB 998, and the specific statutory or policy basis the District relies on for that requirement.

I would appreciate a written response so that I have a clear record of the District's position. Thank you for your time.

Regards,
Wing Yu

Hi Jennifer,

Happy 4th of July! Hope you get a nice long weekend.

I also wanted to say sorry my last email sounded so formal, I was under a lot of stress at the time. You've been helpful from the start and I appreciate it.

While I gather my paperwork, could you help me with two small record questions?

1. For my records, on what date was water service at 333 S Arroyo Dr, Apt D discontinued?
2. When we spoke earlier, I understood the unit had been reported vacant, could you confirm the reason shown in your records for the discontinuation?

No rush at all, after the holiday is fine. And whenever you have a chance, any update on my June 1 questions would be appreciated too.

Warmly,
Wing Yu

Hi Wing Yu,

To answer your questions from this morning, the water was shut off on 5/18/26 due to the accountholder submitting a stop service form. The reason provided was that they were moving.

Management has reached out to the district's attorney regarding your previous email from June 1. He also advises the same information that we've already provided to you: we will require a lease agreement as proof of residency at this location in order to establish water service. I've provided you with the relevant page of the SB 998 in my previous email.

Unfortunately, we do not accept any other alternatives other than the lease agreement.
